

Culture 2000

PRISMA - Centre for development Studies and the Municipality of Herakleion, Crete, in cooperation with the National Research Council of Italy – IBIMET, and the partners of the European project CULT-RURAL

Invite you to the opening of the exhibition

Landscape Stories from tradition to sustainability

at the Basilica of S. Marco, Heraklion, Crete on Wednesday 10 June 2009, 8:00 p.m

The exhibition will remain open from 9 to 23 June 2009
Entrance free

The exhibition is realised in the context of the European project "Cult Rural: Promotion of a Cultural Area Common to European Rural Communities" which is implemented by the organisations: Sveriges Hembygdsförbund, PRISMA - Centre for Development Studies, Euracademy Association, Museum Kresow in Lubaczow, Hungarian Open Air Museum, National Research Council of Italy – IBIMET, National Historical Museum of Bulgaria, Fédération des Musées d'Agriculture et du Patrimoine rural, MuCEM, with the support of: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Jagiellonian University of Krakow, the Academy of Balkan Civilisation, Museum of Cretan Ethnology, Folk Museum of Komotini.

A. Litti